

Activity 1

Look at these neologisms, done in bold, in the context of the sentence. Use your word-attack skills to try to match the examples with the definitions given in the list below the examples.

Definition	Answer	Example
1. Boardsailers should be careful of huge swells in the ocean.		A. A farm tool (a large metal roller with grooves) that is pulled behind the tractor to tighten-up the soil following ploughing/disking/seed.
2. The sudden fall in the price of dot-com shares could have been predicted.		B. A person who plays records in an unconventional way for an audience.
3. The new cultipacker attached to the tractor was extremely effective in tilling the soil.		C. People using e.g., windsurfers on water.
4. Jabulani was amazed by the geocomputation used to analyze the area.		D. Being aware of water restrictions and the need to conserve water.
5. Members of boybands often all look alike.		E. A person who fears all modern inventions and machinery.
6. Local DJ Sammy is a great turntablist and is very popular.		F. Companies that do business using the Internet.
7. Johannes was found guilty of drug-rape after police discovered Rohypnol in his possession.		G. A form of sexual assault in which a chemical substance to reduce memory is used.

8. Andrew is hopeless on the computer and is a real technophobe.		H. A group of musicians who form a young all-male pop group.
9. The women used the water sparingly when growing their vegetables because they were water-wise.		I. High performance computing in geographic information systems.